W.P. NO. 24915 of 2006

O R D E R (per Hon'ble Sri Justice D. Appa Rao)

This is a taken-up matter upon a letter dated 17.11.2006 by the petitioner Machavaram Vijaya to issue a Writ of Mandamus directing the respondents to protect her and her husband from her father and other relatives.

2) She averred in her letter to the Hon'ble The Chief Justice that she fell in love with one Suresh Babu and married him at Sri Prasanna Venkateswara Swamy Temple, Konda Bitragunta village, Bogole Mandal, Nellore District on 12.11.2006 as per Hindu Law and Caste custom against the wishes of their parents. She came to know that her parents lodged a false complaint against her husband alleging that he kidnapped her and took her away without her consent. Therefore, she apprehends threat to her and her husband's safety.

3) First respondent, the Station House Officer filed counter, inter alia stating that no complaint as alleged in the letter was received from the parents of the petitioner. In fact, she sent a similar letter to the Superintendent of Police, Nellore District, who in turn referred it to him, and that he on enquiry came to know that no complaint was lodged. He further stated that every protection would be given as and when they approach him.

4) Since no complaint whatsoever was made by either of the parents to the police, the apprehension of the petitioner has no basis.

At any rate, the 1st respondent has undertaken to give all protection if any complaint is received against them. We do not see any justifiable ground to issue any direction in this regard.

5) In the circumstances, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No costs.
